

Police Arrest Couple In Borno For Stabbing Co-wife To Death

BY FRANCIS OKOYE,
Maiduguri

Borno State Police Command has arrested a husband and wife, Mustapha Mohammed and his wife for stabbing co-wife to death on 25th of August, 2023 at Ajilari Cross Bulunkutu area of Maiduguri.

A statement issued by the police public relations officer (PPRO) Sani Kamili Shatambaya in Maiduguri yesterday which was obtained by LEADERSHIP Friday, said the arrested husband Mustapha Mohammed had accused his wife, one Bintu Mustapha, of alleged extra marital affairs with her ex-boyfriend on the same date the said wife was found stabbed with a knife lying unconscious in pool of blood in her room.

He said on receipt of the information, a team of policemen led by the divisional police officer (DPO) moved to the scene where the said husband and the co-wife were seen trying to wash off the blood to erase evidence.

Shatambaya said the statement is in contrast to the fake news making the rounds and propagated by some mischievous and unpatriotic elements that some group of gangsters had entered a house at Ajilari cross Bulunkutu with intent to snatch handset of a housewife and in the process stabbed her to death.

He said the command therefore wishes to discountenance the fake rumour and set the record straight by stating the true situation of the incident.

The PPRO said : " On 25th of August, 2023 at about 10pm , based on credible information, the Police Tactical Team arrested one Mustapha Mohammed male adult of Ajilari Cross Bulunkutu Maiduguri who accused his wife one Bintu Mustapha over an alleged extra marital affairs with her ex-boyfriend.
