The police in Adamawa State have neutralised two suspected kidnappers who allegedly laid ambush to prevent security agents to have access to their hideouts, after kidnapping one Mrs Becky Ladawus, a resident of Nyibango, Yola-South local government area.

Spokesperson of the police command in the state, Suleiman Nguroje who confirmed the incident said two pump action guns and charms amongst others were recovered.

The kidnappers were trailed by the police to their hideouts connecting part of Gujubu, Bole, Yolde Pate and part of Yadim, in Yola South and Fufore local government areas.

The operation was carried out by the command's operatives led by the commander of the Crack Squad in joint operation with hunters, which yielded positive result as the victim was rescued unharmed.
