Operatives of the Adamawa State Police Command have arrested a 42-year-old man, John Clarkson, for allegedly killing his elder brother over alleged witchcraft.

Clarkson, who hails from Dumna Zarbu in Guyuk reportedly killed Mohammed Clarkson, a father of eight children during a quarrel over the allegation of bewitching the wife of his own son.

It was learnt a fight ensued between the deceased and the suspect when the latter approached him over the allegation of bewitching their daughter and other sick people which he reportedly confessed.

The suspect said it was some youths who pelted the deceased with stones during the fight that killed him.

The command police public relations officer, SP Suleiman Yahaya Nguroje, confirmed that the suspect was in police custody and promised to ensure his prosecution.
