

1 Killed As Akwa Ibom Revenue Collectors Clash

BY INIOBONG EKPONTA, Uyo

Tension has mounted in Ukam community in Mkpát Enin local government area of Akwa Ibom State following violent clashes involving factional revenue collectors.

The violence claimed the life of one Samuel Monday Toby, with different degrees of injury inflicted on dozens of others, LEADERSHIP learnt yesterday.

It was gathered that armed policemen, who intervened to restore calm, had laid siege to the community, searching for the perpetrators including one Akanimo Bob, one of the personal assistants (PAs), to Governor Umo Eno. Akanimo Bob was reportedly detailed to the LGA, to maintain peace after the clash of two revenue groups at Ikot Akpabong market, which resulted in the death of Samuel Monday Toby, at Ikot Akpabong market.
