Fear has gripped some residents of Zamfara State as members of the recently inaugurated Community Protection Guards (CPG) allegedly killed Magaji Lawal Salala, a political associate of Senator Kabir Marafa.

Salala was invited by members of CPG to their office in Tsafe town, the headquarters of the local government area on Saturday when the incident occurred.

Addressing newsmen after the funeral of the deceased, Marafa said he personally encouraged the late Salala to honour the invitation to hear the allegations levelled against him.

According to him, Salala died while in detention in the hands of the CPG in Tsafe office.

Marafa said blood was gushing from the mouth, ear and nose of the deceased.

He said the deceased was severely tortured by the guards who inflicted multiple injuries on him.
