Kano State Police Command has arrested three suspects for kidnapping and killing their 14-year-old neighbour's son in Kano.

The spokesperson of the Command, Abdullahi Haruna Kiyawa in a statement yesterday noted that the command on February 8, 2024 at about 1100hrs, received a report from one Alhaji Rabiul Abdullahi, of Hotoron Fulani Quarters Kano that he received a phone call from an unknown person that his son, Abdullahi Sani, aged 14 years old of same address, was kidnapped and a ransom of N4 million was demanded for his release.

He said the situation prompted the commissioner of police (CP) Mohammed Usaini Gumel, to engage a team of policemen from the Anti-Kidnapping Unit of the Command to ensure the rescue of the victim and arrest the perpetrators.

“In furtherance to the investigation, the said Ismail Adamu confessed to having conspired with one Risi, 'm', of Mariri Quarters Kano and kidnapped the victim. The suspect further revealed that they took the victim to Sabuwar Zara Village where they stabbed him in his neck and threw him inside a Soakaway at an uncompleted building in Sabuwar Zara Quarters Kano, and later contacted the father and demanded N4 million for his release.

“Furthermore, the crime scene was visited by the Police Operatives where the deceased body was removed from the Soakaway and evacuated to Abdullahi Wase Specialists Hospital Kano where a Medical doctor certified the body dead and it was deposited at the Hospital's Mortuary.
