Police operatives have arrested two students of the Abubakar Tafawa Balewa University (ATBU) for allegedly killing two persons whose bodies were dumped at the outskirts of Durum, a community in the neighbourhood of the Gubi Campus of the university.

The suspects are 27-year-old Hoomvez Martins Nyelong and Daniel Audu Adamu, 26.

Similarly, the police arrested 29-year-old Maigari Inuwa who claimed to have graduated from the University of Jos in connection with the crime. All the suspects were alleged to be members of a notorious cult group.

PPRO, Bauchi State Command, Ahmad Mohammed Wakil who disclosed this in a statement on Friday said a resident of Durum alerted operatives at C-Division after discovering the bodies dumped in the bush in Kuhu.

“The suspects were seen roaming about the area. They were arrested but failed to give a satisfactory account of their mission in the area.
