

SHORT NEWS

Assailants Stab Niger Official To Death

BY ABU NMODU, Minna

Assailants have killed a photographer and special assistant on communication attached to the Office of the Special Adviser Political in Niger State, Zacheus Salaudeen.

LEADERSHIP gathered that the men numbering three attacked the photographer in his residence at Tundun Fulani Minna on Monday night.

It was learnt that the deceased was stabbed to death in the presence of his wife by the suspected hoodlums who left him in the pool of his blood to die.

It was learnt that the men went into his bedroom after killing him and went away with his laptop and phone as well as his camera.

He was said to have just graduated from Federal University of Technology, Minna where he read physics and was into private photography to sponsor himself before he was appointed and attached to special adviser political office.

The special adviser political, Alhaji Mohammed Nma Kolo, confirmed the incident to LEADERSHIP while expressing sadness over the loss. He is survived by his wife, mother and children.
