The police have arrested Riba Kwanta from Shelleng local government area of Adamawa State for slitting the throat of his wife with a cutlass

The 40-year-old Kwanta killed his wife Mrs Godiya Akwale and locked her corps in the room and fled to Ondo State.

The suspect was said to have committed the crime in December 2023 shortly after he got married to the deceased.

The police said the suspect could not have peace in his hideout in Ondo and decided to return to Shelleng and handed himself over to the divisional police headquarters of the area.

The police brought the suspect to the command in Yola, the state capital, where he was questioned for culpable homicide.

The suspect was alleged to have domestic crisis after their wedding with his deceased wife

He married the deceased about three years ago on December 25, 2023 and had no child with her, the spokesman of the command, SP Suleiman Yahaya Nguroje confirmed in Yola yesterday

He said the suspect would be charged to court for prosecution when the investigation is completed.
