Nigerian Army troops have killed three terrorists, and foiled a kidnap attempt, arresting two in Sokoto, Kaduna and Plateau states in separate operations.

A statement on the Nigerian Army official X handle said the successful operations were conducted on April 24, 2024.

In Sokoto State, troops following actionable intelligence ambushed a notorious group of terrorists at a suspected crossing point around Sarma village in Tangaza local government area of Sokoto State.

Following a firefight, the troops eliminated the group's kingpin and recovered one AK-47 rifle with two magazines, seven rounds of 7.62 mm (special) and a motorcycle.

In a related development, troops responding to a distress call foiled a kidnapping attempt along Kasu village road, Kafanchan District in Jema'a local government area of Kaduna State.

The troops arrested two suspected kidnappers and recovered one fabricated rifle, two rounds of 7.62 mm (Special), one cartridge, and a motorcycle.
