

4 Women Die In Bauchi Ghastly Auto Crash

BY KAMAL IBRAHIM, Bauchi

About four women died in a ghastly road crash in Dutsin-hari, a community along Jalam-Lanzai road in Darazo local government area of Bauchi State on Wednesday.

LEADERSHIP gathered that the women died while heading to Sade market. However, the vehicle driver was overspeeding. Hence, he lost control and somersaulted.

The women who lost their lives in the crash were identified as Aishatu Salihu, 25; Furera Haladu, 25; Zuwaira Dandija, 19 and Lahala Muhammed, 41.

Similarly, many other victims of the crash were rushed to hospital for medical treatment.

Bauchi Police Command spokesperson SP Ahmed Wakil confirmed the incident to reporters, saying over 30 passengers were aboard the vehicle.

"Many people were injured. When the police took them to the hospital, the doctor confirmed four people dead," he said.

Wakil said the Command commemorated the deceased's family and warned drivers to observe traffic rules.

Agwatashi Youths Hail Tinubu Over Food Security Project

Agwatashi youth forum in the Akwatashi community of Obi local government in Nasarawa State has applauded President Bola Tinubu for finding their community suitable to cite the federal/state government food security project.

This was contained in a press statement signed by Samuel Iyima, the chairman of the Agwatashi youth forum, and made available to Vanguard on Wednesday in Lafia.

The Youth leader of Agwatashi said that citing the over 10,000 hectares of land in Agwatashi for farming, which will prevent the community's youth from participating in youth restiveness, is a welcome development.
