Three students were killed yesterday when people suspected to be Boko Haram terrorists attacked Faudiya School in Gaidam local government area of Yobe State.

A source told LEADERSHIP Weekend that the hoodlums attacked the school belonging to the Islamic Movement of Nigeria (IMN).

IMN spokesman in Gaidam local government area, Mallam Mahadi Ibrahim, said they also burned part of the school.

He added one person who tried to escape was injured and was hospitalised.

Another resident told our correspondent that some of the students were in their sleep when they were forced outside and three were shot dead.

Spokesman of the Yobe State

Police Command, DSP Dungus Abdulkarim, confirmed the killing of the students.

The students are 22-year-old Muhammadu Saleh, Ahmed Abdulrahm and Abdullahi Adamu, both 21 years old, while 25-year-old Sani Haruna was injured.
