Former President Muhammadu Buhari has expressed sadness following the death of 40 members of the Tijjaniyya Movement in Nigeria in a road accident on Sunday.

In a message to the government and people of Kaduna State, the former president, in a statement by his media aide, Garba Shehu, said, "I'm pained by the loss of many lives due to the road accident involving participants in the Maulud celebrations in Kaduna.

“My thoughts are with the bereaved families. I pray that the injured recover soon.”
