1 Die In Edo Clash As IGP Deploys More Personnel

BY EJIKE EJIKE, Abuja

The inspector-general of police, IGP Kayode Egbetokun, has deployed additional personnel to address the community Clash between Amagba and Obagie communities, where Mr Israel Ogbeide was shot dead.

The IGP, who condemned the recent violence in Amagba Community, Edo State, resulting in the tragic death of Mr Ogbeide, whose body was discovered on October 19, 2024, at approximately 2:00 pm, bearing a fatal gunshot wound, directed a thorough investigation to uncover the circumstances surrounding his death.

The Force PRO, ACP Olumuyiwa Adejobi, said last night that preliminary investigations suggested that this unfortunate incident is connected to a longstanding dispute between the Amagba and Obagie communities.
