

Sex Worker Kills Barman Over N200

BY HUSSAINI

HAMMANGABDO, Yola

The Adamawa State Police Command has arrested a 32-year-old sex worker, Riyannatu Musa, for allegedly stabbing a barman to death during a quarrel.

The sex worker who is based in Mubi South LGA, killed the barman identified as Yohanna Musa, during a quarrel over N200 balance for liquor.

The sex worker has since confessed to the odious crime while being interrogated by the police.

She narrated that she had collected a hot drink (dry gin) and one other from the victim and promised to pay the following day, saying that she paid the sum of N1,500 remaining the balance of N200.

She explained that the fight ensued between her and the victim when he demanded for his money and in the process, she stabbed him with a knife in the chest resulting in his death.

The mother of two said that she drinks beer but denied drinking it on the day of the incident, and regretted her action.