

BRIEFLY

Man Dies In Kano Collapsed Well

BY LONGTONG YAKUBU,
Kano

.....
A 50-year-old man identified as Yusuf Nadabo has died in a collapsed well at Gargajiga town in Minjibir local government area of Kano State.

Spokesman of the state fire service, Saminu Yusif, who confirmed the incident in a statement yesterday, said the incident affected three persons who were repairing the well.

According to him, the deceased was said to be inside the well working alongside two others from outside when the sides of the well collapsed and fell on him.

He said the service received an emergency call on Thursday at about 11:40 a.m from Bashir Namadi, who reported the incident.

He said on arrival at the scene, they succeeded in pulling out two people alive while Nadabo was rescued unconscious but was later confirmed dead.