Police Kill 7 Bandits, Recover 109 Rustled Animals In Katsina

Godwin Enna   1 day ago   News

No fewer than seven suspected bandits were killed, and 109 rustled animals were recovered in a successful operation by the Katsina State Police Command following a foiled attack on Ruwan Doruwa village in Dutsinma local government area.

According to a press statement by the command's spokesperson, DSP Abubakar Sadiq Aliyu, the incident occurred on January 18th, 2025, at about 9:00 am.

The Dutsinma Divisional Police Headquarters received a distress call reporting a bandits' attack. Armed with AK-47 rifles and other dangerous weapons, the bandits had launched an assault on the village, causing panic among residents.

In a swift response, the divisional police officer (DPO) mobilised to the scene in collaboration with the military, Department of State Services (DSS), Katsina State Community Watch Corps (KTSCWC), and local vigilantes.

The security team engaged the attackers in a fierce gun battle, neutralising seven suspects. The remaining bandits fled with injuries, abandoning the rustled animals.

61 cows, 44 sheep, two donkeys, one goat, and one dog were recovered during the operation.

The police commissioner of Katsina State Command, CP Aliyu Abubakar Musa, praised the operatives for their bravery, professionalism, and commitment.

He assured the public of the command's unwavering resolve to safeguard lives and property across the state.

In his statement, CP Musa called on residents to continue supporting security efforts by providing timely and actionable intelligence.

"Your cooperation is vital in the ongoing fight against crime and criminality," he emphasised.