Police Nab Man For Stabbing Friend To Death

BY ABU NMODU, Minna

A 23-year-old man, Hashimu Sani, of Kotonkoro, Mariga local government area of Niger State, has been arrested by the police for stabbing his friend to death.

It was gathered that in what started like a joke, the man, suspected to be a drug addict in the village, suddenly threatened to stab his friend, Musa Bala, without any altercation, and before people could intervene, he stabbed him.

Police spokesman, Wasiu Abiodun, said the man was arrested and is now with the State Criminal Investigation Department (SCID).

"Police operatives of Kotonkoro, attached to Bangi Div arrested one Hashimu Sani 23yrs of Kotonkoro village with two knives stained with suspected blood substance. It was reported that the suspect allegedly used the knives to stab one Musa Bala, 20 years, of the same area on the neck," he added.
