Yusif said, “On Tuesday, 8th April 2025, at about 11:15 am, the control room of the agency received an emergency call from the commander, vigilante group of Gezawa, who informed us that two women had fallen into a puddle.

“According to their relatives, they are workers in a zobo processing company, and they entered the water to wash their bodies after closing from duty, which resulted in the loss of their lives.”

He, however, maintained that the victim’s body was successfully retrieved, unconscious and handed over to the Police division in Gezawa town.
