Bawa allegedly stabbed his friend during a quarrel over hard drug known as Diazepam in Adamawa State.

Bawa has been remanded in prison custody for allegedly stabbing a friend with pair of scissors to death.

The remand order followed the arraignment of the suspect before the court by the Adamawa State Police Command.

Bawa, who hails from Ngurore in Yola South local government area, allegedly stabbed Ali with a pair of scissors in the chest, which led to his death.

The defendant also reportedly stabbed a lady known as Hasim, currently receiving treatment at a medical facility.
