Efforts must be geared towards beefing up security at Obudu Ranch Resort as armed robbers numbering over 30 invaded the community, unleashing mayhem on the people, killing and injuring several others.

Dare-devil armed bandits numbering more than 30, last Thursday shattered the security network of one of Nigeria's famous Resorts, Obudu Ranch Resort as they invaded and killed several persons who had visited the relaxation spot.

During the operation, a former student of the Federal College of Education, Obudu was shot dead instantly. He died as a result of excessive bleeding from bullet wound he sustained from armed robbers' gun shots. Some bullets are still lodging in the victim's brain.

Two other victims, Peter Betiang, a lecturer at the Federal College of Education Obudu and a pregnant woman who were bleeding from different parts of their bodies due to gunshots were rushed for medical help.

Batiang said that the robbers arrived the community and his house at 3am and ransacked everywhere demanding for money and other valuables. Some other victims lamented that those who did not have cash were tortured and shots.

The divisional police officer, Obudu, Mr. Orok Iban assured that investigation into the robbery incident was being intensified.

The robbers carted away properties worth several millions of naira, including cash, clothes, electronics, GSM handsets and other unidentified items. The chairman of Obudu local government council, Mr. Justine Ikor Ugbe who paid a sympathy visit to the victims, promised to foot the medical expenses of the victims.
