RELATED NEWS

The attack was executed at about 6:40 pm when Muslims were breaking their fast.

As at the time of this report, residents of Bauchi have deserted the streets while armed security men have taken over the patrol of the town to ensure that the crisis did not spread to other parts of the town while the state government has asked people to remain calm as the situation is under control and will not be allowed to spread.

How long will these ungodly and barbaric act continue unchecked? these group are not with any true religion but are group of rebels hiding under religious cover.If they have respect for any faith at all,they should have consider that we are in the final days of the Holy Month of Ramadan.

To disrupt the peace of your fellow citizens under any cover is ungodly and condemnable by all.

I pray this group will come to truly know who this God is and stop using His Holy name to do evil.

@Gasky Truth: Ever mischievous! What have Senator Gaya and Chief Fani-Kayode got to do with the issue at hand? If your pseudonym of 'Gasky Truth' is to lay claim to truthful and fair comment, I am sorry to say that you are far from these virtues. It is really very unfortunate that those who are supposed to be educated and guide Nigeria's public opinion are doing this to us.

@Joe Batwuo: I stand by your comment. I am a muslim and from your name I guess you are a christian, but you have said it the way it is. May Allah save Nigeria!!!!
