Kaduna: Gang Leader Murdered

RELATED NEWS

WEDNESDAY, 12 JANUARY 2011 01:58 SAMUEL ARUWAN, KADUNA

A group of armed youths numbering about 50 have killed one Alhaji Yahaya, also known as Bala Dogo, believed to be leader of a rival gang known as 'Yan Daba'. The deceased's wife, Malama Yaya, told newsmen in their Angwar Sarki residence that the rival group had earlier stormed his residence before heading to his farm where he was murdered in cold blood.

His also said that those that perpetrated the act are known faces residing in the area.

"This is not the first time they are attacking him. Even recently they came calling in which they pelted our house with stones."

Another victim who was injured on rushing to rescue the deceased who declined to mention his name said, "They are members of Ababa group here in Angwan Sarki who had sworn to collect the title of 'Sarkin Daba' from Bala Dogo who they eventually killed."

The Kaduna State Police Command confirmed the occurrence of the clash which it said it under investigation, while it denied any knowledge of casualties.
