

Four killed in Nasarawa road crash

FOUR persons lost their lives when an Okigwe-bound truck fell into a ditch at the Lafia main market junction

Two persons who survived in the accident, Saleh Macci and Iliasu Useni told reporters that the truck also carried 28 cows from Dengi market in Plateau State.

They said the driver, now at large, lost control when he was negotiating a bend at the junction.

Three of the passengers died on the spot and the fourth at the Lafia General Hospital, receiving treatment.

Five of the 28 cows also died on the spot.
