

Navy Captain killed in Abuja

FEDERAL Capital Terriotry (FCT) Commissioner of Police Lawrence Alobi has confirmed the killing of Navy Captain John Abu by unknown persons.

Navy Capt Abu was among the Course 14 at the National War College, Abuja, who graduated last month.

Alobi said that Navy Captain Abu was shot dead yesterday in his home at Karu, a satellite town in Abuja.

Robbers kill Navy Captain

FEDERAL Capital Territory (FCT) Commissioner of Police Lawrence Alobi has confirmed the killing of Navy Captain John Abu by unknown persons.

Abu was among the Course 14 participants at the National War College, Abuja, who graduated last month.

Alobi said that Abu was shot dead yesterday in his house located at Karu, a satellite town in Abuja, by unknown assailants.

He said in Abuja yesterday that the command had started investigations into the case.

Alobi noted that the command in conjunction with other relevant agencies would unravel the killers and their sponsors.

"We have commenced investigations and we are working with other related organisations," he said.

Daughter of the deceased was shot on the leg by the assassins before they left the house.

She is receiving treatment in one of the hospitals in Abuja.