

Bandits kill cell phone dealer

SYMPATHISERS in Kaduna have thronged the residence of cell phone dealer, Abdullahi Hussein, killed by gunmen in the early hours of Saturday.

Hussein, whose shop is on Muhammadu Buhari Way, was attacked by gunmen who besieged his shop at about 9.20 a.m., a day after his return from Dubai where he had gone to buy cell phones.

The shop's sales woman, Nana told reporters that the hoodlums struck when her boss was sorting out batches of cell phones and other valuables for retail.

According to her, the bandits, who carted away the cell phones, rushed toward the boss and collected an undisclosed amount of money from him.

She said the bandits who held Hussein at gun-point while leaving with their loot, shot him when he started yelling for help.

Hussein, who was rushed to the nearby Barau Dikko Hospital, died few minutes after reaching the hospital.

His grieving wife, Hajiya Ladidi, said she was shocked.
