

Gunmen ambush two judges in Enugu

GUNMEN yesterday attacked two judges of the Enugu High Court. They killed a security aide and wounded a driver.

The judges, Justices Patrick Akubuilu and B. C. Nosike, were travelling separately in their official Peugeot 406 cars marked ENSJ 3 and ENSJ 5 on the Enugu-Nsukka road when they were attacked.

The judges were on their way to resume work for the day at Udenu and Enugu

From Chris Oji,
Enugu

Ezike when they were suddenly stopped at Egede junction.

According to an eyewitness account, the two vehicles were stopped at that point and when the occupants realised that an attack was being launched on them, the orderly to Justice Akubuilu attempted to dislodge the attackers but was visited with a hail of bullets fired from the ambush inside a nearby bush.