

Man set ablaze for alleged missing genitals

From Shola O'Neil,
Warri

ants and commercial motorcyclists, (Okada riders), immediately stripped the deceased naked without verifying the claims of the man before setting him on fire.

Assured that their victim was burnt beyond survival, the motley crowd dispersed before the arrival of the police at the scene.

However, independent investigations carried out by our correspondent revealed that the suspects could be innocent bystanders who were drawn to the scene of the mob action.

Meanwhile, it was gathered that Ekong has transferred the suspects to Asaba, the state police command headquarters at the behest of the Commissioner, Mr. Udom Ekpoudom.
