

Maiduguri: four killed, several injured in political clash

FOUR people were reported to have died and several others sustained serious injuries when two factions of a political party otherwise known as ECOMOG said supporters of one of the popular political parties clashed last week in Maiduguri, the Borno State capital.

The Nation gathered that the incident occurred in Gomari costian ward at the official residence of the aggrieved factions of the political party over the sharing of a huge amount of money given to them by their leaders.

ASP Bashir said the situation has been put under control by the police and that normalcy and peace has since returned to the area where the incident occurred in the state capital.

The police PRO disclosed that armed mobile police men are now patrolling the state capital to ensure the safety of lives and property of the people.
