

One killed in Delta cult clash

STUDENTS of the Delta State University (DELSU), Abraka, are now living in fear, following the bloody clash among cults on Campus 4.

At least one person has been confirmed dead in the latest incursion into the community by cultists.

Eyewitness said the victim, a man, was shot dead by gang members, allegedly led by a dreaded cultist, a.k.a. Mickey Rontin, around the Ese Jones Restaurant on the campus.

The unidentified victim is not a student of DELSU, but was visiting a friend, who was suspected to be the target of the killer-gang.

From Shola O'Neil, Warri

The Nation's source disclosed that police closed down the entire Campus 4 on the prompting of the school's authorities.

Similarly, hostels in the area, including Fort Marion, where the victim's friend lived, were stormed by the police, who arrested some students and residents.

At press time, the entire university community was gripped with fear over reports that the cult group at the receiving end of the weekend incident was planning a reprisal attack.

The Divisional Police Officer (DPO) for Abraka could not be reached for comments.

Olabisi Okuwobi, police spokesperson, who was contacted by our correspondent, appealed for time to get the true state of affairs in the town before she could comments.

Etiaba: God has