

Jealous lover stabs girl to death in Osun

For alleged two-timing, a Prelim student at the Osun State Polytechnic, Iree, Ganiyat Oyewale, was stabbed to death by her 25-year old boyfriend, Saheed Aji.

The tragedy occurred last Saturday at Eyinade area of the town when Aji, who was a student of Accountancy

From Wale Folarin,
Osogbo

Department, allegedly met his girlfriend and another boy on her bed.

Aji, who is undergoing his Industrial Training (IT), was said to have called Ganiyat on the telephone and intimated her of his intended visit to see her, but was shocked when he got to her room only to find her in the arms of another boy.

He was said to have picked up a knife inside the room and stabbed Ganiyat on her buttocks, while her other lover fled to avoid being attacked by Aji who was burning with fury.

The fleeing Romeo was said to have raised the alarm which attracted Ganiyat's neighbour, but she died before she could be rushed to the hospital.

Irate students who rushed to the scene of the incident pounced on Aji and beat him black and blue, before the arrival of policemen who took him to the State Criminal Investigation Department (SCID).
