

Gunmen kill council chairman in Kano

KANO State was yesterday thrown into mourning, two months after the general elections over the killing of the chairman of Minjibir Local Government, Alhaji Muhammad Abdu Kaya by a gang of armed bandits.

Eye witnesses said that the deceased

From Suleiman Dangana, Kano was killed after which valuable items and an unspecified sum of money and GSM handset were stolen.

The killing took place shortly after midnight on Tuesday in Minjibir, headquarters of the local government area shortly after the deceased returned from the state capital, Kano, where he had earlier attended some meetings.

The Police have offered rewards to anyone who could volunteer information that could lead to the arrest of the suspects.
