AN accident at Arigbabola junction in Ondo yesterday between a petroleum tanker and a motorcycle has killed the rider while the other two passengers on the ill-fated motorcycle sustained serious injuries.

Eyewitnesses said, the motorcyclist together with his passengers were trying to enter Arigbabola Street, off the busy Ondo/Ile-Ife road when the Petroleum tanker driver who was being pursued by the police from Lipakala junction about two kilometres away, lost control and rammed into it.

When the reporter visited the scene, there were blood stains, shoes and other personal effects of the victims, as well as the damaged motorcycle scattered on the road, while the tanker was seen parked several metres from the spot.

At the Ondo Specialist Hospital where the victims were admitted, several relatives of the injured victims and the deceased motorcyclist were seen crying.
