

Woman, 80 killed in collapsed building

From Femi Shodunke,
Abeokuta

AN 80-year-old woman and her three-year-old granddaughter were yesterday feared dead when a storey-building collapsed in Abeokuta, the Ogun State capital.

Another person narrowly escaped death but sustained serious injuries and had been hospitalized.

The bodies of the duo have been deposited in the mortuary, the Police Public Relations Officer in the state, Femi Awoyale confirmed.

The incident occurred in Kemta-Odutolu area, few metres to the popular Itoku Market, famous for Kampala cloths.

The Nation learnt that the rubbles of the collapsed building fell on the bungalow where the octogenarian and her granddaughter lived around midnight on Tuesday.
