

Three burnt to death in road accident

A ROAD accident which occurred yesterday morning on Gombe-Bajoga Road killed three men. They were burnt in a fire resulting from the crash.

The accident which involved a fuel tanker and a tipper lorry loaded with sand, coming from opposite direction happened at about 8am following a head-on collision.

The tanker, which fell into a nearby ditch, somersaulted several times and eventually trapped its three occupants who were burnt beyond recognition before the arrival of fire servicemen.

Spokesman of Federal Road Safety Commission (FRSC) Command in Gombe, Godwin Ochekwu told The Nation at the scene of the accident that the other three passengers of the tipper were injured. They are now being treated at the Federal Medical Centre, Gombe.
