

Robbers kill petrol station owner

ONE of the six suspected robbers that shot dead Managing Director of Jamson Filling station on Eku-Usubi Road, via Effurun, Delta State, may have been arrested by the police.

The robbers stormed the station in a Toyota Hilux with an unknown registration number about 3.50 p.m. yesterday, killing Chief Sunday Maduka, who was said to have resisted the attack.

From Dominic Adewole, Asaba

The Acting Commissioner of Police Jacob Oshiomogho confirmed the suspect's arrest yesterday to reporters in Asaba.

"On the receipt of information, the Criminal Investigation Department (CID) swung into discreet investigations, which led to the arrest of one of the suspects," while five others escaped," he said.

According to him, the suspect allegedly confessed to committing the offence and gave the identities of the fleeing members of the gang.