

Seven killed in police, robbers shoot-out fully, the injured policeman was rushed to the hospital by a reinforcement that came from the nearby Area 'E' Command and the Festac Police station.

The policemen were more than three at the checkpoint. It was those that escaped that went back to the station to alert the others.

Sources disclosed that the robbers warned the policemen to steer clear of Third Gate, threatening to come back to finish those that escaped. The operation lasted for more than 30 minutes.
