A POLICEMAN was killed and five others were injured when robbers stormed a new generation bank in Ibadan, Oyo State.

The injured are receiving treatment at the Emergency Unit of the University College Hospital (UCH) Ibadan .

The robbers, according to an eyewitness account, arrived at the bank at 10.20 pm on motorcycles and in some vehicles. They shot into the air to scare people away.

They were unable break into the bank's vaults despite several attempts before the arrival of riot policemen.
