

Man kills wife in Ogun

By Ernest Nwokolo,
Abeokuta

THE police in Ogun State have arrested Mr Sunday Abbah, an indigene of Kogi State, who confessed to killing his wife, she was six months pregnant.

He allegedly smashed her head with a heavy stone while she was asleep.

The suspect, was among the 24 crime suspects including 13 armed robbers, four fake currency traffickers and four hard drugs runners who were paraded before reporters in

Eleweran, Abeokuta yesterday, by the Commissioner of Police, Joseph Apapa.

Abbah, whose first child in the marriage is Mercy, a two year-old girl, said under interrogation that he did not know what moved him to commit the act and urged " the government to kill" him since "it is of no good living again after killing my wife." He pleaded