

Two armed robbery suspects killed in Onitsha

A TWO-MAN robbery gang, who specialised in monitoring and trailing people from banks and snatching their bags and other valuables while riding on a motorcycle have been lynched in Onitsha, Anambra State.

Eyewitness said, the suspected robbers, who were riding on a brand new motor cycle, trailed the man they robbed from a new generation bank at New Market Road, to the popular Ekene junction, near Modebe Avenue in Onitsha. It was alleged the suspects blocked him and shot into the air severally. The victim allegedly handed the bag to the robbers.

However, in the ensuing stampede, the robbers lost control of the motorcycle and fell into a deep gutter. They were caught by passersby.

The source disclosed that immediately the suspected robbers were caught, the crowd attacked them with clubs and machetes until they became unconscious. The suspects were later set ablaze by the mob.
