

Train kills woman

From Clarice Azuatalam,
Port Harcourt

AN unidentified woman has been killed by train in Port Harcourt .

The incident took place about 7 am, on Tuesday under the Abali Motor Park Fly-over, in the metropolis. Eyewitnesses told The Nation at the scene of the accident that the woman was trying to dash across the rail line at the time the train was equally hooting to announce its coming.

She slipped and fell and could not get up before the train ran across her body, cutting it into two. The train which was heading to Abonema Wharf , Port Harcourt, kept moving without knowing the tragedy it had wreaked.
