

Sea pirates kill three in Port Harcourt

From Clarice Azuatalam,
Port Harcourt

SEA pirates struck again yesterday in Bonny, Port Harcourt, Rivers State, killing three persons who were in a local passenger boat.

Several other passengers were also reportedly wounded in the attack.

According to sources, the pirates first attacked a Nigeria Liquefied Natural Gas (NLNG) boat before taking on the second boat inflicting serious harm on them.

The hoodlums had killed two passengers and the driver of the boat after which they led the boat to a nearby swamp, abandoned their victims and made away with the boat.

The Police spokesperson, Mrs Rita Inoma-Abbey, who confirmed incident, said that the wounded and the dead had since been taken to a hospital in Bonny.