

Four robbery suspects killed in Enugu

From Chris Oji, Enugu
POLICE in Enugu yesterday killed four armed robbers, including two brothers.

This happened barely 24 hours after a gang of armed robbers shot Mr. Clement Ekeoba, an official of TELL magazine in Enugu, the state capital.

The names of the two brothers were given as Ifeanyi and Maduka Nwobodo. The other suspects are Chidi Ngene and Chiemezie.

The suspected armed bandits were alleged to have operated in a Mercedes Benz 190 car with registration number EN 527 ENU.

The hoodlums went to a filling station at Unyi Ogugu, Olamaboro Local Government, Kogi State to rob petrol attendants and customers before they met their Waterloo.

The Commissioner of Police, Mr. Suleiman Fakai, confirmed the incident.
