Robbers kill one, injure another in Ondo

From Akinwale
Aborisade, Ondo

ONE person has been reportedly killed and another injury in an early morning robbery attack at Ondo, Ondo State.

The incident, according to sources, happened on Kola Rewire - Ademulegun Road yesterday.

The hoodlums were said to have hijacked a commercial bus at Ore, Ondo State but was trailed by the owner and some members of National Union of Road Transport Workers (NURTW), Ore branch.

Another commercial bus was allegedly hijacked by the bandits who headed towards Ondo.

According to sources, those who trailed the robbers stopped to solicit help at Ile-Ife Motorpark, Ondo.

They continued the chase after a few unarmed members of the drivers' union at the Ondo Park joined them.

The robbers stopped at Kola Rewire on Ore-Akure highway and opened fire on those pursuing them.

Mr. Fatai Tijani a.k.a. Oloriebi lost his life in the incident.

The vehicle he rode in was riddled with gunshots from the gang.

The bandits drove off, leaving a white commercial Toyota Haice bus marked Lagos AH 555 GGE that was taken to Yaba Divisional Police Headquarters, Ondo.

The incident paralysed business activities in the town.
