

Two students killed in road accident

TWO students of Tai Solarin University of Education, Ijagun, Ogun State were killed yesterday and over 16 of their colleagues are on danger list at the State Hospital, Ijebu-Ode. A passenger bus conveying them home at the end of the day's lecture collided with a truck in an accident involving five vehicles.

About 25 passengers said to have suffered serious

From Ernest Nwokolo, Abeokuta

injuries were rushed to private hospitals in Ijebu-Ode when the State Hospital could not cope with the number of victims.

The crash that claimed the lives of the students occurred by 2.35pm, a few metres away from the university gate.

The Federal Road Safety Commission (FRSC) Unit Commander, Ijebu-Ode, Mr.

Anto Solomon Yakubu, told The Nation that two bodies were recovered and scores of others were injured.

At the Ijagun campus the university community was mourning.

The two students died on the spot after the crash when the 18-seater bus conveying them from school had a collision with a truck coming from the opposite direction on the Sagamu - Ore Expressway.