

Train crushes trailer, car in Lagos

MANY people were believed killed in Agege, Lagos State last night when a morning train crushed two vehicles.

Sources said a car and a trailer which attempted to cross the rail line were crushed and mangled by the speeding locomotive.

Police spokesman, Frank Mba told The Nation last night that the train was headed for Oshodi when the incident occurred.

He said a man and his wife were trapped in the wreckage and that policemen were on ground.
