

Eleven arrested over murder of 12-year-old girl

From Soji Adeniyi, Osogbo

NO fewer than eleven people have been arrested by the police in connection with the murder of a 12-year-old girl in Ifon, Osun State.

The girl, Rofiyat Ojewole, a primary three pupil of the Rock Eternal Model Primary School, Ifon in Orolu Local Government of Osun State, was murdered in cold blood last Monday when she was sent by her mother to fetch water near a church in the town.

According to Police Public Relations Officer, Mr. Clement Akinola, investigations have commenced to ascertain the level of involvement of all the eleven suspects arrested before they would be charged to court.
