place after successfully sealing off the area from the popular Ekene junction up to the Christ the King College (CKC). The robbers shot sporadically into the air.

According to an eye witness, the robbers who operated with a red Sports Utility Vehicle and a Honda salon car attacked the place after ordering customers, numbering over 50, to lie down. They made away with the sales for Saturday and Sunday.

The robbers also abducted a five-year-old girl her, said the source.

After the operation, the robbers escaped through the MCC junction in the Upper Iweka area, where they veered into Awada.

The source said at Oraifite Street in Awada area, they killed two young men.

Anambra State Commissioner of Police, Mr. Uzor Amakulor confirmed the incident but said the Police are trying to establish a link between the robbery incident and the kidnap of the movie star, Pete Edochie.
