Call for probe of alleged murder

Some indigenes of Arigidi Akoko in Akoko North West Local Government Area, Ondo State, have urged the police and Governor Olusegun Mimiko, to investigate last month's alleged killing of their kinsman, Mr. Igebekele Oyeleye.

The indigenes, who spoke under the aegis of The Patriots, yesterday in a statement in Lagos, said the death of the former Chief Priest of the Okota Shrine had prompted several protests by indigenes of the town, especially the youth.

The statement by the town's head of kingma-kers, Chief Andrew Oloruntola and a member, Chief Dotun Awolumate, reads in part: "We want to say clearly and without bias that the case has nothing to do with the Obaship tussle in the town.

"We are in full support of the law to bring to book the killers of the young Oyeleye.

"We don't want the town to be factionalised because of one person."

Oyeleye died at the Federal Medical Centre (FMC), Owo, Ondo State. He was reportedly abducted by some persons.
