A policeman was killed after five gunmen attacked a police check point in Aboh, Ndokwa -East Local Government Area of Delta State.

Corporal Isial Usien was among the five detailed for routine stop-and-search duties at the Ashaka-Igbuku-Okoh roundabout.

It was learnt that bandits robbing commuters on Igbuku-Ibrede road chased a commercial motorcyclist who spotted them and ran in the direction of the checkpoint.

According to sources, the robbers chased the motorcyclist who sped past the police check point.

Four suspected robbers, it was learnt, alighted from their vehicle and opened fire on the police men. Usien was killed.

It was learnt that the robbers drove towards Ibrede community after snatching another car from a military officer travelling to the Okpai Gas Plant.

The robbers abandoned the two vehicles and escaped through a footpath to the Ase Creek where they fled by a speed boat.

Aboh Police Division, chief Superintendent Isaac Odjegba confirmed the incident, adding that investigation was on.
